About the Scholarships

The AFSCME Ohio Council 8 Scholarship Program was created in 1982 to provide financial assistance to the children of Ohio Council 8 members to attend a four-year accredited college or university. The scholarships, two $2,500-a-year grants for four years, are awarded annually to two different recipients, one male and one female, based on the applicant's need, academic history and higher education goals. Scholarship applications are reviewed by the union's executive board, which will award the two scholarships no later than June 30, 2017.

Jaladah Aslan and Robert M. Turner

A life long resident of the Youngstown metropolitan area, Jaladah Aslan, has been active in the labor movement and politics for the past thirty years.

In 1986, Jaladah became Chief Steward of AFSCME Local 2001 which represented 286 employees of the Mahoning County Department of Human Services where she was a Caseworker. In 1992, she became the first African American female to serve as a Staff Representative for AFSCME in the Youngstown region.

For the next twenty-three years, Jaladah represented union members in nine counties along the eastern portion of Ohio.

In addition to representing employees at the bargaining table, she advocated for members in grievance and arbitration hearings. She was also AFSCME's Lead Staff for Political Action in Mahoning and Columbiana counties.

Jaladah retired in 2015, and is now an independent political and labor consultant.

Robert Turner started his public employee career in 1969 when he was hired by the City of Kettering. He immediately joined the chapter of AFSCME Local 101 Dayton Public Service Union which represented the city's workers.

Working his way up through the ranks Turner became chapter chairman, served on Local 101's executive board, and was elected the union's vice president 1977. In 1978 Turner was hired as an AFSCME Local 101 staff representative. With the formation of Ohio Council 8 he joined the Dayton Region staff.

In 1985 he was appointed Athens Regional Director. For the next 15 years served members in Southeast Ohio. In 2000, he was appointed Cincinnati Regional Director and served until retiring in 2006. Turner passed away in 2011.
